

Farmer/Gardener Intern

---

Division: General Operations

Position Title: Farmer/Gardener Intern

Reports to: Janice Brown, CEO & Education Director

Type of Position: Unpaid, Part-time

On the Grow Needs

Some passionate gardeners who are garden experts or trying to become experts to grow crops for OTG and help maintain demonstration gardens.

Qualifications & Skills

- A basic knowledge of nature & gardening (Seasonal training will be provided.)
- Natural ability to connect with kids and adults
- Strong social media skills
- Strong organizing skills
- Outreach and marketing skills are a plus
- A team spirit

Responsibilities and specific duties:

- Cultivate seasonal crops and keep crop inventory up to date
- Manage OTG Greenhouse @ Harbach Urban Farm
- Maintain OTG beds at Harbach Urban Farm
- Provide some maintenance at partnership gardens
- Help on volunteer maintenance days at partner gardens
- Help Program/Development Coordinator maintain garden education supplies
- Assist with developing, giving, and marketing gardening workshops
- Assist in garden planning contracts

Benefits

- Ability to build your gardening skills
- Opportunity for free learning!
- Opportunity for retirees to work on your own schedule
- Mentoring from a business owner and Master Gardener/Master Naturalist
- Work in a fun, energetic environment
- Potential to transition into a paid position
- Want to start your own garden? In kind services are no problem!
- Flexible work
- Opportunity to help a start-up company grow from the ground, up

To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to info@girlonthegrow. For more information, please contact Janice Brown at 713-303-6503.

